

Speech and Theatre Association of New Jersey, Inc

Spring Teachers' Conference

Thursday, May 12, Paper Mill Playhouse

"A Day at the Paper Mill: Workshops & the Production Curtains"

Below find the program, directions and a Registration Form.

One must be a member of STANJ or a Guest of a STANJ member to take advantage of the Conference Program

Use Registration form on second page to register for the conference and/or to join STANJ.

To obtain the half price orchestra seats discount, you must Register by Feb. 15

Conference Program:

09:00-9:30am Registration & Coffee
Carriage House Tavern & Garden Rooms

09:30-09:45 am: Welcome & Intros.
Lisa Cooney, Dir. of Education

09:45-10:30 a.m.: Session I
"History of Paper Mill"

Michael Mooney, Mgr., Outreach & Access

10:30-11:30 Session II
"About Curtains"
Discussion w/ Mark Hoebee, Director
& Creative Team of Curtains

11:30-01:00 Lunch at Charlie Brown's
35 Main Street, Millburn

01:30- Production of Curtains
Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, NJ

About Session I:

MICHAEL MOONEY, Manager of Outreach and Access Programs for Paper Mill Playhouse, will share a history and development of the Paper Mill Playhouse of Millburn, NJ. He will discuss Paper Mill's impact on the community, region, state as well as its national impact.

The STANJ Spring Teachers' Conference is being held at the Paper Mill Playhouse.

The Registration form is on page 2.
Be sure to register early for the workshops and the production Curtains being staged at The Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, New Jersey

About Session II:

MARK S. HOEBEE, Paper Mill's Producing Artistic Director and Director of the play Curtains will share background on the show and its journey from the rehearsal studio to the main stage. Joining Mark in the discussion will several members of the creative team of Curtains.

STANJ members, invite a guest to see the play Curtains.
See GUEST THEATRE TICKET, registration form on page 2.

STANJ
Begins
Its
51st Year