

About the Presenters

Mr. MICHAEL MOONEY has devoted his life to the performing arts, having been involved as performer, writer, director and administrator. Coming to Paper Mill Playhouse in 1994 from The Growing Stage Theatre in Netcong, New Jersey, he served in the fundraising department under Development Director John McEwen. He became involved in the theatre's accessibility programming, eventually assuming full responsibility for the theatre's nationally recognized Access programs and services. In 2001, he was appointed Manager of Outreach and Access Programs, a position he designed himself. He is now entering his 17th season with Paper Mill. Among many awards, Michael is the proud recipient of the 2008 New Jersey Governor's Award for Arts Education

MARK S. HOEBEE (Producing Artistic Director) joined the artistic team at Paper Mill Playhouse in 2000. He has directed PMP productions of Dreamgirls; The Will Rogers Follies; Victor / Victoria; The King and I; Miss Saigon; Grease; Harold and Maude: The Musical with Estelle Parsons; Hello, Dolly! starring Tovah Feldshuh; Romance / Romance; Meet Me in St. Louis and Disney High School Musical, as well as several national tours and many regional productions. Mark performed in more than 10 Broadway and national tour productions and has served as an Adjunct Professor in the Dance and Theatre Department at Northwestern University. He currently sits on the Board of the New Jersey Theatre Alliance.
