Broadway 101

This is the perfect introduction to Broadway and basic theater and creativity skills.

Making Music

Choral and vocal groups will learn the art of marrying music and drama to achieve great emotional impact.

Stage Combat

This is an interactive workshop that explores the art of realistic stage choreography through safe step-by-step demonstrations.

Up Close and Personal

Enjoy an intimate hour-long Q & A with a Broadway performer and a private performance by this special guest.

Costume Design

From draping and designing, groups learn the art of costuming from a Broadway wardrobe professional.

Step by Step

Take a dance master class with a Broadway performer in the style of the show you're going to see or learn an actual dance number from that show.

Open Call

Participants will develop audition techniques by performing material for a Broadway casting director and watching a Broadway professional perform his or her material.

Broadway Instrumental Clinic

Place your students directly in the world of a professional Broadway pit musician, playing for Broadway's best performers.

The Business of the Business

From headshots and resumes to agents and casting directors, this program covers the basics of what tools one needs to pursue a career in the performing arts.

Theater in Context

Explore the history and literature that are related to the show you're seeing.

Theater Sports and Improv

This team-oriented collection of non-stop theater games is perfect for short attention spans!

Making a Scene

Working from a scripted scene, the focus is on interpreting and bringing text to life in truthful, imaginative and specific ways.

Stage Make-Up

Learn the transformative art of stage and special effects make-up from a Broadway professional.

Acting Shakespeare

Through simple script analysis participants will learn to demystify the aspects of these classic texts.
